Soldier and Family Assistance Center (SFAC)

BLDG 220
531-2362/1637

The Soldier and Family Assistance Center (SFAC) mission is to provide a safe haven that promotes healing and provides a Family of services dedicated to the needs of Warriors in Transition and their Families.

Survivor Outreach Services Program (SOS)

BLDG 924
531-1965

The Survivor Outreach Services Program is here to provide long-term support to Family members of our Fallen Soldiers by offering assistance, providing information, and connecting Family members to outreach organizations both inside and outside the Department of Defense.

The SOS Support Coordinator (SC) provides long term support for Survivors and helps to maintain a connectedness to the Army for as long as the Family member desires.

The SOS Financial Counselor (FC) works closely with the Support Coordinator to ensure the needs of the Survivor are met. The FC provides financial advice on Individual Money Management Counseling, Financial Education and Training and Information and Referral.

Survivor Outreach Services are offered to Family members of Fallen Soldiers who reside in the states of Louisiana and Mississippi and nine counties in Texas to include: Chambers, Hardin, Jasper, Jefferson, Liberty, Newton, Orange, Polk and Tyler.

After Duty Hours, Weekends and Holidays call American Red Cross 1-877-272-7337

Command Referral Program

The AER program has a positive influence on Soldier's morale by giving Commanders an important asset in helping them accomplish their basic command responsibility for morale and welfare of their Soldiers and Families. The Commanders' Referral category affords immediate Commanders another tool to affect a positive impact on their Soldiers by giving them authority for an instant emergency financial loan up to $1,500.00 when a Soldier has a valid emergency need.

Unit Service Coordinator (USC)

BLDG 920
531-0772

The Army Community Service, Unit Service Coordinator serves as a link between ACS and the Unit, Soldiers and Families.

The USC provides subject matter "expertise" on Family support issues and services. They increase Unit awareness of services and facilitate contact with ACS staff in order to provide greater access to programs.

Military Family Life Counselors

BLDG 920
337-396-2647

Military Family Life Counselors (MFLC) are available to help Service members, spouses, Family members, and children. Counseling services include confidential intervention for grief, loss, anger, depression, marital and Family issues or everyday stressors.

Counseling and trainings are FREE and ANONYMOUS.

NO RECORDS ARE KEPT.

After hours and weekend appointments are available.

Group or off site meetings can be arranged.

Family Member Resiliency Training (FMRT)

BLDG 920
531-0772/1941

The Family Member Resiliency Training (FMRT) teaches skills that enable Family members to become more self-aware, connected, and optimistic which increases their resiliency.

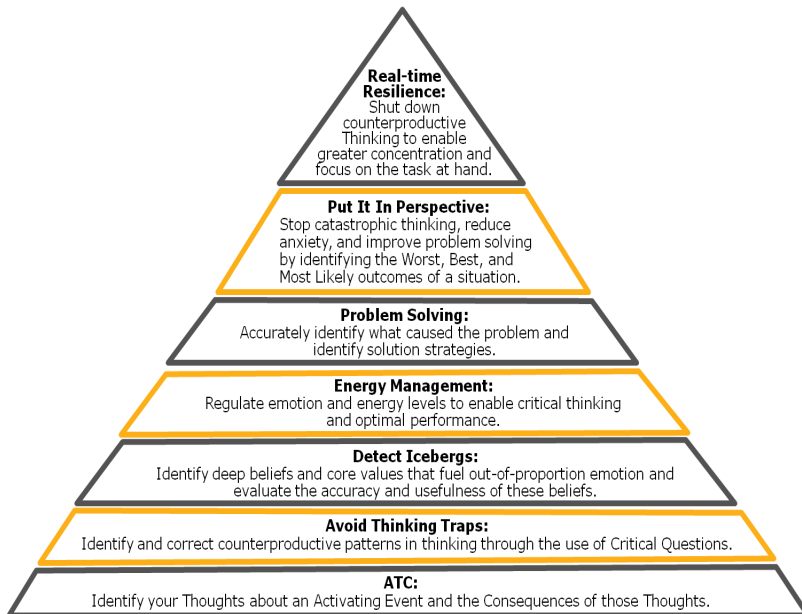

The first two training modules of Resiliency training are taught to Family members over 3 days. ACS will also teach modules of training to Family Readiness Groups upon request.

Module 1: Resiliency

Module 2: Building Mental Toughness

Module 3: Building Character Strengths

Module 4: Building Strong Relationships

Army Emergency Relief (AER)

BLDG 920
531-1957

AER provides financial assistance to Soldiers (active and retired) during periods of valid emergencies, playing an important and unique role in helping the Army “take care of its own.” AER is a private non-profit organization whose sole mission is to collect and hold funds to relieve financial distress to Soldiers and their Family members. AER exists solely for the Soldier and belongs to all Army people, active and retired, and to the spouses and orphans of deceased Soldiers.

Approval of an AER loan is based on a need created by an emergency situation beyond the control of the Soldier. AER assistance is provided after all other means of assistance (personal funds, Finance, ACS, helping agencies, etc.) have been explored without success. The primary areas of assistance are:

- $ Essential travel expenses when verified by an American Red Cross (ARC) message denoting serious illness/death
- $ Payment of rent to prevent eviction when substantiated by an eviction notice from landlord
- $ Assistance with utilities to prevent termination of services
- $ Assistance for the purchase of food
- $ Non-receipt of pay when substantiated by LES or Finance
- $ Loss of funds-after the unit, military or local police have been notified
- $ Family Dental Care for OCONUS only, including Diagnosis, fillings, crowns, root canals, extractions, sealants and emergency care to alleviate pain
- $ Basic Furniture Needs including beds, cribs, sofas, chairs and tables
- $ Assistance for a rental vehicle for emergency leave or when the primary vehicle is in for repairs, normally for 7-10 days
- $ Assistance for a replacement Vehicle when the cost of repairing the primary vehicle exceeds the value of the vehicle. Limited to no more than $4,000

Financial Readiness Program (FRP)

BLDG 920
531-1957

Prevention Education

Training for First-Term Soldiers: This is an eight-hour block of instruction on financial planning for all Soldiers whose first duty station is Fort Polk.

Basic Prevention Education Program: Financial Planning classes are available to units, Family Readiness Groups or individuals, upon request. Personal Financial Management classes are conducted the third Tuesday of each month. The class is designed to develop budgeting skills and bank account reconciliation. Reservations are required.

Services

Family Subsistence Supplemental Allowance (FSSA). ACS Financial Counselor will assist Soldier with the application process.

Emergency Food Voucher Program: Emergency food vouchers may be provided for up to three days of food. Donations of cash are accepted in support of this program.

Budget Counseling: Counselors help the client develop a realistic budget and maintain proper financial records.

Debt Management Referrals: Clients seeking debt management will be referred to InCharge Debt Solution Debt Management Program. The Department of Defense (DoD) has established a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with InCharge Institute of America, Inc. Clients requesting InCharge Debt Solutions DMP will be instructed to provide the completed debt management packet and will be scheduled for a second appointment within five business days from the initial session.

Consumer Advocacy

Consumer Affairs and Complaint Resolution: Information is provided on how to resolve complaints, rights/obligations, and consumer protection laws. Assistance is provided to clients when sending complaint letters and contacting agencies or businesses.

Army Family Action Plan (AFAP)

BLDG 924
531-9190

The Army Family Action Plan (AFAP) Conference is conducted annually. This conference provides a forum for America's Army (active duty, reserve component, retirees, DoD civilians and Family members) to identify concerns that affect the quality of life, not only at Fort Polk but throughout the Army. It determines actions necessary to resolve and improve existing Family programs, benefits and entitlements for the total Army Family. Some AFAP successes include the BOSS Program, the Thrift Savings Plan (TSP), and the Army Family Team Building (AFTB) Program.

Army Volunteer Corps Coordinator (AVCC)

BLDG 920
531-2840

The Army Volunteer Corps Coordinator links volunteers to programs throughout Fort Polk. Installation volunteers have flexibility of hours, build self-confidence, gain leadership skills and provide a service that is needed and appreciated. By volunteering your time, you are helping to assist Soldiers, retirees and their Family members. To talk about your interests, skills, hobbies and to find out what positions are available; please call to schedule an appointment.

ARMY FAMILY TEAM BUILDING (AFTB)

BLDG 924
531-9421

AFTB is a volunteer driven program that provides knowledge and empowerment to Army Families. The training leads to skills, abilities and behaviors that will prepare the Army Family to adapt successfully to the Army lifestyle.

Level I "Military Knowledge"

Helps Family members learn about the Army life and how to maneuver through daily challenges by discovering how to decipher Army acronyms, utilize community resources and understand the goal and impact of the Army mission.

Level II "Personal Growth and Resiliency"

Helps Family members improve personal skills through the development courses of leadership and management in conjunction with the FRG, Community agencies, or other military and civilian organizations.

Level III "Leadership Development"

Helps Family members develop advanced leadership skills and enhances participant's organizational skills in the Army and civilian life.

AFTB is a flexible modular training program. All classes can be taught separately for an FRG meeting or a unit briefing through concept blocks.

Outreach Services

BLDG 924
531-1895

The Outreach Program offers a wide variety of social, educational and recreational classes and activities at no cost. Special Classes and Activities are planned periodically and are usually geared to the interest of the Family members.

Classes and Activities Provided:

Children's Arts and Crafts Classes are held on Monday and Wednesday for children ages 2-4 from 1000-1100. This class/activity is designed to provide the child with a special activity to share with Mom or Dad. You do not need to register and there is no charge for these classes.

Toddler Play Time Group meets on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 0900-1100, and is an activity/play time for parents and children, ages birth to 5 years. Parents can talk to each other while the children learn to play together.

English-As-A-Second Language classes are taught on four levels. Anyone wishing to enter these classes should call for an appointment to be tested for class level evaluation. Each class meets twice a week for approximately 2 hours. The goal of this program is to teach foreign-born individuals how to read, write, speak and understand the English language and the American culture.

Conversational Class is part of the ESL Program and is held twice weekly. Special speakers are scheduled periodically for this class.

Special Health and Safety Classes are presented by subject matter experts.

Information: Outreach "Smiley" packets are provided for newly arriving Families.

Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP)

BLDG 920
531-6650/2840/7456

The Exceptional Family Member Program is outlined in AR 608-75 and works in concert with other military and civilian agencies to offer a comprehensive, multidisciplinary approach for medical, social, educational, community support or services for Soldiers and their Family members with special physical, emotional or intellectual needs and chronic illnesses.

Army Community Service EFMP components include information, referral, client advocacy, Family-find activities, monthly support meetings, respite care, and recreational and cultural programs when the need has been assessed. The program coordinates and facilitates the weekly Special Needs Accommodation Process (SNAP) with Child, Youth and School Services (CYSS) for any child with special needs.

The ACS Center maintains a directory of military and civilian special education and information and referral services for special needs Families. Information is also available on educational rights of children with disabilities under local and federal laws. Family-find activities are targeted at identifying and locating Family members who may be in need of this program's specialized services. Once identified, the EFMP Manager refers Families to Bayne Jones Army Community Hospital for screening, evaluation and participation in the EFMP. POC for enrollment: Patty Overton 337-531-3046.

A Resource Library for special needs Family members and installation professionals is available. The library contains books, audio and videotapes to sign out to assist parents, educators, caregivers and others in helping children and youth with disabilities.

Mobilization and Deployment Readiness (MDR)

BLDG 924
531-9743

The MDR program is designed to support active and reserve component Soldiers and their Families prior to and during periods of extended separation. Pre-planned Family assistance and support services ensure a comprehensive effort and coordinated assistance delivery system is in place prior to military operations. The objective of MDR is to provide guidance and assistance to unit commanders, Soldiers and Family members. This program actively promotes self-development for Family members in volunteer leadership positions and fosters teamwork in Family Readiness Groups.

Installation Family Readiness Group (FRG) Training is conducted for spouses of Company/Troop Commanders, First Sergeants, and Family Readiness Group Leaders. Some topics covered are the role of the Leader Spouse, community resource panel, briefing on FRGs, information on fundraising, FRG newsletters, effective communication, active listening techniques and crisis intervention. Participation facilitates networking opportunities for new FRG Leaders. Point of Contact (POC) training and Treasurer Training is also offered.

Operation R.E.A.D.Y. (Resources for Educating About Deployment and You) training is a must for military Families. Installation training is conducted periodically throughout the year. Training includes Coping with Separation, Homecoming/Reunion, Reintegration, Care Team Training and much more. If you are unable to attend the training, Family members may check out deployment videos and receive age-appropriate children's workbooks to assist toddlers through teens to cope with the stress of military separations.

Family Advocacy Program (FAP)

BLDG 920
531-1938/4653

The Family Advocacy Program provides information and education on marriage, parenting, new parent support services, crisis intervention and victim advocacy services, to support Families or individuals and to enhance their coping skills.

Programs and Services

VICTIM ADVOCACY PROGRAM. Provides services to victims of domestic violence to include: Crisis intervention, options counseling, safety planning, legal advocacy, access to emergency transportation and relocation. 531-6333

NEW PARENT SUPPORT PROGRAM. A program staffed with social workers and registered nurses that provide home visits, support groups, mentoring and role-modeling for parents with children ages three and under. 531-7065

BABY CENTER. A program to provide necessities such as diapers, formula, wipes, cereal, and hygiene items for children 0–3 years to qualified Families. 531-7065

DYNAMICS OF FAMILY VIOLENCE FOR TROOPS AND COMMAND. The FAP staff is available for briefings to fulfill each unit's annual requirement. Call for a briefing. 531-0636

Newcomer Orientation: Provides the newly arriving personnel and Family members an opportunity to acquaint themselves with the Fort Polk community whether on or off post. This orientation is designed to let the audience address questions and concerns to on post agency directors and representatives of the Fort Polk Garrison Command. A free group for the children is provided by Army Community Service. Please bring your child's shot record if he/she is not registered with Child Youth and School Services.

Reentry and Special Workshops: This workshop is offered on a monthly schedule and addresses the logistical, financial and psychological adjustments that must often be made, when returning from an overseas assignment. Local on and off post information is offered as well as State of Louisiana information. Appointments may be made on an individual basis.

Sponsorship Support: Relocation Readiness staff provides guidance and materials for military personnel appointed as sponsors within the military units. Sponsorship Training and workshops are done on request through the unit representative or by individual request. Information on e-sponsorship is also available.

Services to Multicultural and Waiting Families: Multicultural services include providing support and assistance tools free-of-charge to foreign-born individuals desiring to learn about the English language and American culture. The 'Hearts Apart' Support Group is designed for Family members of a Soldier who is temporarily separated from the Family due to military or career requirements. Examples of separations are; Soldiers on unaccompanied tours, temporary duty assignments and/or unavailable family housing.

Citizenship and Immigrations Service: We assist Service and Family members with Green Card and Naturalization issues. Get help navigating the system from those who have gone before you.

Relocation Readiness Program (RRP)

BLDG 920
531-6952/6923/6941

Relocation Readiness provides information, guidance and assistance to help minimize the impact on Families during Permanent Change of Station (PCS) moves, Soldier unaccompanied overseas tours and Soldiers exiting the Army.

Relocation Counseling: Provides tools for a structured, organized move for the transitioning service and/or Family members throughout the chaos of relocation. Area information is offered, as is a relocation plan, an automated information system, a checklist and a relocation calendar. This program is designed to help with newly arriving or departing personnel and their Family members to get through the stressful situations of relocating to or departing from a military post or the civilian community. This is offered in conjunction with other classes and services offered by Relocation Readiness.

Pre-arrival Information: MilitaryHomefront.com is a joint service (Army, Air Force, Navy, Marines, Coast Guard) database where information is updated quarterly. The Relocation Readiness staff assists units in conducting pre-move briefings and training workshops for persons designated as sponsors.

Post-move Assistance: Provides information packets on Fort Polk and the surrounding community, in cooperation with special post-move orientation briefings.

Lending Locker: Provides temporary loan of small household items needed until household goods and hold baggage arrive.

Mandatory Overseas Orientation: Per DA Regulation 608-1, Relocation Readiness offers overseas orientations bi-weekly to military personnel and Family members relocating to an overseas assignment. This orientation is designed to help familiarize departing personnel with their new overseas duty station and the off post community they will soon be living in. Relocation Readiness addresses the cultural aspects as well as the driving habit and capabilities of the new overseas assignment.
